Research Analysts: Corporate Accountability Initiatives

The CtW Investment Group is seeking Research Analysts at both associate and senior levels to conduct corporate research and analysis in support of corporate accountability initiatives. Positions are open in Washington, DC.

The CtW Investment Group, a part of Change to Win, assists worker retirement funds to be an effective voice for corporate reform and accountability. Change to Win is a dynamic coalition of five of North America's most progressive labor unions and a leading force for social, racial and economic justice in our country today. Members of Change to Win unions participate in benefit plans with more than $1.5 trillion in assets.

Research Analysts will help develop and implement initiatives to enhance corporate accountability, governance and performance, with an emphasis on shareholder and other financial initiatives. The work requires high quality, in-depth research and analysis using quantitative and qualitative methods, including financial analysis, industry and corporate research.

Job Qualifications:

- BA degree or higher, MS or MBA preferred (coursework in economics, statistics, financial analysis or law).
- Excellent quantitative, analytic, business writing and people skills.
- Strong technical and investigative research skills.
- Computer literacy, including spreadsheet and database.

Preferred at the Senior Level:

- Ability to critically assess a firm's business strategy and financial performance and to effectively communicate this critique to corporate managers, shareholders, journalists and other audiences.
- Familiarity with basic corporate governance areas and issues related to the fiduciary duties of corporate directors and officers.
- Familiarity with the capital markets and data sources to support corporate and financial research.
- Strong political and organizational skills.

Compensation: Competitive salary; excellent benefits.

Women and people of color are strongly urged to apply. CtW does not discriminate in any of its programs, procedures or practices on the basis of age, color, disability, national or ethnic origin, political affiliation, race, religion, sex (including pregnancy), sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or veteran status.
